

Queen of Sorrow (Unblackened Version)

Black Label Society

Hey, now
I've stepped into the black
I say hey, now
I won't be coming back
I say hey, now
I've left it all behind
I say hey, now
Take a look but you find noStep outside this world where I feel free, yea
Step outside this world where I can't see, no
Queen of sorrow and all this hell within, oh
I close my eyes and sit back as I watch my
Envy endHey, now
Bored of sight and sound
I say hey, now
The spiral's always down
I say hey, now
There ain't no coming back
I say hey, now
I've stepped into the black nowStep outside this world where I feel free, yea
Step outside this world where I can't see, no
Queen of sorrow and all this hell within oh,
I close my eyes and sit back as I watch my
Envy end
