Wall (High Contrast Remix)

I'm gonna paste you up
Cover you in wallpaper
Screw shelves into you
And call you a wallThat's all you are to me
Tryna keep people inside
Inside your sordid little house
This is no white abodeYou can have skirting board shoes
And plug sockets on your knees
I'll hang a painting on your lip
And put tinsel round it at christmasTryna keep people inside
Inside your sordid little house
Tryna keep people inside
Inside your sordid little house
You can't keep us inside much longer pal
We've seen the view from the window
You can't keep us inside much longer pal
We've seen the view from the windowIt's glorious outside
Have you seen the time?
Have you seen the tide?
WE'LL SING ALL NIGHT
We need cohesion (x2)As time keeps moving
We keep losing our rights
Freedom is not the choices
Between what job and what caryou can just look back into history
To find corruption and mystery
And if we don't take note
We'll wake up on the same boatTryna keep people inside
Inside your sordid little house
Tryna keep people inside
Inside your sordid little houseIt's glorious outside
Have you seen the time?
Have you seen the tide?
WE'LL SING ALL NIGHT
We need cohesion (x2)have you seen the time?
Have you seen the tide?grit ya teeth then break the glass
Now sprint and don't look back
Full pelt into the dense forest
And ask him
What's your thoughts on lionizing?

What's your thoughtd on tensions rising?
Deep in the dense forestTryna keep people inside
Inside your sordid little house
Tryna keep people inside
Inside your sordid little house
Tryna keep people inside
Inside your sordid little house
Tryna keep people inside
Inside your sordid little house
