

I Feel That Old Feeling Comin' On

James Brown

I, I ,I feel, I feel that old feelin' coming on

Well, I feel, I feel that old feelin' coming on

Well, I been so unlucky ever since I was bornTell me pretty baby, tell me what you goin' do

Well, well, tell me pretty baby, tell me what you goin' do

You goin' keep on runnin', let the woman make a fool of youI, I, I,

I feel, I feel that old feelin' comin' onI been buked pretty baby

Don't you know that I've been scorned

Well, I've been buked pretty baby

Don't you know that I've been scorned

I've been talked about just as sure as you're bornNow count on your fingers till you reach twenty one

Well, just keep on countin' baby, till you reach twenty one

I've been so unlucky, I'm my mothers seventh sonCount on your fingers till you reach 21

Well, well, I say keep on countin' baby, till you reach twenty one

I'm so unlucky, I'm my mothers seventh sunI, I, I, I

I feel, I feel that old feelin' comin' on

I, I, I

I feel, I feel that old feelin' comin' on
