

Suicide Spiders

Astorian Stigmata

I'm the type of girl that when I cry I'll never show it
I'm the type of guy that if i died no one notice
I'm the type of girl that when I'm sober no one loves
I'm the type of guy there just aren't enough of

But at the end of everyday
I guess were all ok
It don't matter what they do
Nothing can bring me down
Cause it's beautiful day
Nothing can take that away
Things are gonna get better wait and see

I'm the type of guy who stays in his place
I'm the type of girl who steps on that guys face
I'm the type of guy only your friends seem to date
I'm the type of girl gettin' old waited for her soul mate
