Canary

Alta View

Inside that cage not satisfied with the view through the bars that is blocking the earth my movement is desperate and that makes it worse I don't wanna be here I just wanna be anywhereIf you think that it's alright and there's nothing more I'll keep you locked up in a room slip you pictures of the sky beneath your door don't get me wrong, I'm over it don't get me wrong, I'm all for itThe beast inside (I have no doubts) the bird would fly (if you let it out) timing is nothing with no time to spare, when forcing fake smiles in poisonous airI'm seeing shadows of my self running around inside a cell looks like it's begging me for help with no patience, on my own script stuck hesitating cause I couldn't take a hint imaginations well designed such a shame it didn't meet the Deadline
