Tales Of Terror

I had to kill her, because I love her
I had to kill her, because I love her
If I cannot have her, nobody else will
That's why I had to, that's why I had to killI thought she was kind, I thought she was sweet
I found out she was a cheat
She she broke my heart, she made me cry
That's why she had to die, that's why she had to die
That's why she had to dieDon't ask me why, but she just had to die
I stabbed her, I killed her
She made me cry, I cut her up
And I put her in a bag, I cut her up
And I stuck her in a hole
Some place that no one will ever knowI had to kill her, because I love her
I had to kill her, because I love her
If I cannot have her, then no one else will
That's why I had to, that's why I had to killI thought she was kind, I thought that she was sweet
I found out she was a cheat
She broke my heart, she made cry
That's why she had to die, that's why she had to dieHoo, ahh, don't ask me why
But that girl just had to die, I stabbed her
I cut her, I killed her, cause she made cryI cut her up, and I put her in a hole
I put her some place, no one will ever know
Die, little girl, little girl, little girl, dieI had to kill her, because I loved her
I had to kill her, because I loved her
If I can't have her, nobody else will
That's why I had to, that's why I had to killHoo, die, die, die die, die
Kill, kill, kill, kill
I loved her, I loved her, I loved her, I loved her
