Precious Times

Beverly McClellan

My head is spinning ninety miles an hour
And my body, my body just canâ€™t keep up
So many things are running through my mind
I wish I could just tell them to shut up

(Chorus)
But, oh, these precious times
But, oh, these precious times
No, no, no you canâ€™t replace them
You canâ€™t replace these precious times
No, you canâ€™t replace them
No, you canâ€™t replace them
These precious times
(Instrumental)

And what would be the matter
If nothing were at hand
Could we spin away on a rainbow
Or catch each otherâ€™s hand

And if I covered you up with questions
Just to ask them all again
No, we canâ€™t really find the seam of things
Or where it all began

(Chorus)â€¦â€¦â€¦
