

Luna de Miel

Alejandro Escovedo

As I ascend up to the mountaintop,
I had the notion that you knew the way.
But I was wrong for now we're lost.
The path has vanished, the moon is upside down. Hey, we've gotta get away.
Hey, we'll never be the same.
Hey, yeah we could ramble on.
We'll find a place where we can be. Come on... I feel the sun beatin' on my back.
The birds are flyin' and they won't come back.
So take my hand, the danger's on the rise.
I feel the tempest about to crack the sky. Hey, we've gotta get away.
Hey, we'll never be the same.
Hey, yeah we could ramble on.
We'll find a place where we can be. Here comes the wind. It wants to shake us up.
But just hang on. Because our love's a shield
Won't let the fear carry us away.
Won't let the waves ride our love away. Hey, we've gotta get away.
Hey, yeah we could be the same.
Hey, yeah we could ramble on.
We'll find a place where we can be.
We'll find a place where we can be. Come on... Hey
Hey
Hey
Hey
