Jennifer

Bert Sommer

Jennifer's heaven, for Jenny I'd stay
Skin shining white as a dove
Lying beside her I melted away
Into her river of loveWhoa, I'm lost in a maze
Counting the ways that she smiles
Time is slipping away
Lost in the arms of her love
So gentle and wildJennifer's something you handle with care
Fragile as crystals of glass
Jennifer's lips are as soft as the air
Kissing her here in the grassWhoa, I'm lost in a maze
Counting the ways that she smiles
Time is slipping away
Lost in the arms of her love
So gentle and wildJennifer's heaven, for Jenny I'd stay
Skin shining white as a dove
Lying beside her I melted away
Into her river of loveInto her river of love
Into her river of love
