

Panic! (Time's Running Out)

The Relapse Symphony

Verse 1:

We're like an airplane that is headed straight for system failure.

And I am grabbin' for the radio, so I can make the call.

We're in the wake of our descent, you wear a V for Victim to hide the truth.

Pre-Chorus:
Last chance to make this happen.
Last match to burn this city down.

Last gasp to fill your lungs,
before you'll have to scream the panic out!

Chorus:
Say all you will say, while we're still listening.
Swear you'll be the change, and make it resonate.
Be all you can be, before you're dead to me.

Time's running out! Yeah!

Verse 2:
You're freaking out, 'cause everybody knows that you're the anchor that's keeping us from leaving port, and setting sail.

You are the face, we are the heart, we're letting go!

Pre-Chorus:
Last chance to make this happen.
Last match to burn this city down.

Last gasp to fill your lungs,
before you'll have to scream the panic out!

Chorus:
Say all you will say, while we're still listening.
Swear you'll be the change, and make it resonate.
Be all you can be, before you're dead to me.

Time's running out!

Bridge:
Last chance to scream the panic.
Last chance to scream the panic.
Last chance to scream the panic.
Last chance to scream the panic.

Scream the panic!

SCREAM THE PANIC!!!!

Chorus:
Say all you will say, while we're still listening.
Swear you'll be the change, and make it resonate.
Be all you can be, before you're dead to me.

Time's running out!

Time's running out!

Time's running out!

Time's running out!

Time's running out! Yeah!
