

Shake Ur Kitty

Lady Gaga

Ow, come here boy I met a drummer last week
At a pool bar, down b-by the shore
With a body like that, and your stone washed eyes
I want you more He cried, "Mother! What'd you do to me?"
I said, "Mother mother mother's for babies
Call me kitty." Yeah Shake your kitty
Shake your kitty (meow)
Put your arms around me, babe
I'm giving you permission to feel me Shake your kitty
Shake your kitty (meow)
Put your arms around me, babe
I'm giving you permission to feel me Shake your shake
Shake shake
Shake your sh-shake
Shake it, shake it
Shake it, shake it
Shake it, shake I took a drummer by the hand
To the juke box then
We hit the floor
With your Van Halen pin
And your dark side burns
I want you more He cried, "Mother! What'd you do to me?"
I said, "Mother mother mother's for babies
Call me kitty." Oh, why dontcha Shake your kitty
Shake your kitty (meow)
Put your arms around me, babe
I'm giving you permission to feel me Shake your kitty
Shake your kitty (meow)
Put your arms around me, babe
I'm giving you permission to feel me You never call me by my name
But I still want you
You play some pretty tricky games
But I still want you
Your best friend drives a fancy car
But I still want you
You're working every hour
But, but I still want you yeah! If you see a girl this pretty
Shake her, shake her, shake that kitty
When you see a girl that's pretty

Shake it, shake it, shake that kitty Shake your kitty (meow)
Put your arms around me, babe
I'm giving you permission to feel me Shake your kitty
Why don't you
Shake your kitty (meow)
Put your arms around me, babe
I'm giving you permission to feel me (Uh,uh,oh)
When you see a girl this pretty
Shake her, shake her, shake her kitty
When you see a girl that's pretty
Shake your, shake your, shake that kitty Shake it, shake
Shake it, shake
Shake it, shake
Meow!
Uh-ah,uhh-aww
C'mon and shake your kitty
You're so pretty kitty
