You Are The Master

Bif Naked

I am tied up in the burning sun
Baby, you are my only shade
You're the bowl of water beyond my reach
I can only move the distance of this chain
I chew anything you will give me
Eat anything, even my own words
Scramble for any morsel you throw
You scatter hope like scraps of food
I guess you are the master
I am the dog
I am the dog
Waiting for you to love me
I guess you are the master
I am the dog
I am the dog
Waiting for you to love me
I am jumping on you for affection
I would love to lick your face
You scold me, you push me off
I'm your loyal bitch, a man's best friend
I lie here and lick my wounds
From my little bed of wishes
I run to you in my dreams
I pine for you in my life
I guess you are the master
I am the dog
I am the dog
Waiting for you to love me
I guess you are the master
I am the dog
I am the dog
Waiting for you to love me
I have no sense of time at all
Twenty minutes or twenty years, it's all the same
I am your muse, you are my muse, broken hearts
Baby, please show me some mercy, don't put me down
I guess you are the master
I am the dog
I am the dog

Waiting for you to love me
I guess you are the master
I am the dog
I am the dog
Waiting for you to love me
I guess you are the master
I am the dog
I am the dog
Waiting for you to love me
I guess you are the master
I am the dog
I am the dog
Waiting for you to love me
