

Ain't Such A Bad Place To Be

Will Young

Oh my God, I know, I know
I've been here before, before
Succumbed again, I'm jinxed again
But I still
Soldier on, be strong
The simple reason is I'm skin and bone
Best not be scared
Just to be aware that alone
It ain't such a bad place to be
Because we're opposites
I know you, so don't come creeping back
I'm on my feet again
I'll show you
Put you out like a cigarette
A metaphor not to forget
To forgive, it's positive
Oh come on, come on
Did you think that you could pull
The wool over my eyes
Much to your surprise, alone
It ain't such a bad place to be
Because we're opposites
I know you, so don't come creeping back
I'm on my feet again
I'll show you
Put you out like a cigarette
A metaphor not to forget
To forgive, it's positive
Not negative, live and let live
I ain't holding onto you
It ain't such a bad place to be
It ain't such a bad place to be
It ain't such a bad place to be
Because we're opposites
I know you, so don't come creeping back
I'm on my feet again, I'll show you
It ain't such a bad place to be
Because we're opposites
I know you, so don't come creeping back

I'm on my feet again
I'll show you
A metaphor not to forget
