Separated

Slave

How could we have ever made it
When our love was separated
(Separated)Turn your back on my whole life
I wanted you to be my wife, yeah
(Separated)Separated by a wall, yeah
Hard to understand it all
If you think that lack of trust
Is what you left up to his worst and
(Separated)How could we have ever made it
When our love was separated
How could we have ever made it, yeahI missed every night she's gone
Now I'm sorry I was wrong
(Separated)Sit on the bar
Now there's nothing left within my heart
(Separated)Separated by a wall, yeah, yeah
Hard to understand it all
I missed every night she's gone
Now I'm sorry I was wrong, yeah
(Separated)How could we have ever made it
When our love was separated
How could we have ever made it, yeahSeparated, separated, separated
Separated, separated, separated
Separated, separated, separated
Separated, separated, separatedSit on the bar
Now there's nothing left within my heart, yeah
(Separated)Now how could we have ever made it
When our love was separated, yeah
(Separated)I miss your lovely laughter lips
And your slender, slender hips yeah
Make me mad yeah, come on
