

Taking a Bath In Rust

Eels

Why dont you
Get me
A way out of here
Buy me a ticket
A seat in the rearCause I'd say the daylight
Its time to go homeEvery day
Voice in my ear
Telling me
'Get out of here'I think that you know
Its not so bad
Sitting in rust and taking a bathBut I think that I could Find a new wayEvery day
Voice in my ear
Telling me
'Get out of here'Why dont you just think
About it a while
Maybe i'm too much
Cramping your styleBut now that it's daylight
It's time to go homeEvery day
Voice in my ear
Telling me
'Get out of here'
