Blessa

Toro Y Moi

Come home in the summer
Live a life that you miss
It's alright
I'll fill you in
Don't you wait
For me to call your name again
I see the wind blow into my shoes
Each (?) cuts into my nerves
It's hard to let you come on in
And let you know that i was hurt
Search for a life

Every second
Every day, every night
It's a blessing
I found a job
I do it fine
Not what i want
But still i try
I see the wind blow into my shoes
Each (?) cuts into my nerves
It's hard to let you come on in
And let you know that i was hurt
