

Visiting an Old Friend

Nitty Gritty Dirt Band

We grew our hair long and we
Did lots of things wrong and we
Tried only to belong to ourselves Time must have taught us
How to laugh and love and play
Nobody caught us, so
I guess we got away You kept me crazy, the things
You were into amazed me, but my Face still betrays me
When I smile.
Exchanging new tunes
Back and forth on one guitar
Say, who were you loving then
In the back seat of his car?
Thanks for the coffee, yes I'll
Try and play softly
She must be awfully tired
I'll turn a light off
You can go upstairs to bed
Got a tune to run off
Before it leaves my head We grew our hair long and we
Did lots of things wrong and we
Tried only to belong to ourselves
