Pendulum

Mark Lanegan

Jesus Christ been here and gone
What a painful price to pay
He's left his life in a thunderstorm
Tears cold dark eyes uponSwing pendulum, swing low
Got no place to call my own
Oh, my Lord, don't you bother me
I'm as tired as a man can be
I'm as tired as a man can be
I'm as tired as a man can belave
What a painful place to leave
With frost on the limbs of a cherry tree
This cold, cold wind is buryin' meSwing pendulum, swing slow
Got no time to call my own
Oh, my Lord, don't you bother me
I'm as tired as a man can be
I'm as tired as a man can be
