Mugshot

Russell Malone

People tell me I outta know better Its so hard to keep it together I've got this feeling cause my phone keeps ringing and my mind keeps dreaming, and my soul's just screaming out Hey oh, hey hey oh Just for the record, I've got a clean record I know its gonna change and I can't be blamed There goes my halo Things are about to change... Gonna go all night, twilight to daylight Crank it to eleven, rock my way to heaven And I won't stop 'til I get my mugshot Money in my pocket, just to too late stop it Its so easy, drinking tequila looking at Tila At the last bar, I was so famous, I was a rockstar And I lost my jacket when they played Michael Jackson Dancing all alone cause I own the zone Singing hey oh, hey hey oh Gonna jump in a fountain, climb every mountain Cutting every line cause I'm out of my mind Singing hey oh, hey hey oh Cause that's just how I roll... Gonna go all night, twilight to daylight Crank it to eleven, rock my way to heaven And I won't stop 'till I get my mugshot Money in my pocket, just to too late stop it And I've never seen a girl look as fine as you And I'm gonna get your name as my next tattoo And I wanna spend the rest of my life with you Before the cops come and take me away
