

Our Anniversary

The Five Satins

Oo wah, oo, oowah, oowah, oo, oowah
Our anniversary is here, darling yes you know
Love has grown so dear, since that year ago
Glad that you're still here, 'cause I love you so, oo,wah
One year ago today, yes, we made our vows
Your love I'm glad to say, I've treasured up 'till now
I truly hope and pray that you will never go.
'Cause my darling, I love you madly
I love you forever more
That's why we are married
It's you alone I'll forever adore
Just like most new loves, we've had our ups and downs
Everything's okay whenever you're around
Truly glad to say: "Happy Anniversary" wee oo-wah, oo-wah, ooo ooo
