

Boring Planet

Millencolin

When I was a kid, you know I thought that I could fly
Threw myself out of window, right out into the sky
Now that I am older now, I know that I could die
Die from a depression, yeah
Would learn my lesson, learn my lesson well Life's so normal, nothing's shocking
Boring planet 'cause no one here is rocking
Life's so tragic, nothing's clocking
Boring planet 'cause no one here is rocking hard When I was a kid, you know I thought that I was strong
The girls in school got beaten up by me every day long
Now that I am older now, I know that it was wrong
To deal with girls in the first place, so a broken heart is now the case
Broken hearted in disgrace Life's so normal, nothing's shocking
Boring planet 'cause no one here is rocking
Life's so tragic, nothing's clocking
Boring planet 'cause no one here is rocking hard It's a boring planet, we're just lying to ourselves
It's a boring planet, thanks to us and no one else Life's so normal, nothing's shocking
Boring planet 'cause no one here is rocking
Life's so tragic, nothing's clocking
Boring planet 'cause no one here is rocking hard No one here is rocking hard
