

Hope

Nuclear Valdez

Love no longer gets me through the day
Oh how high a price I've had to pay
I'm a victim of my own fate
Your love stood before me and I left

But I can't remember, must have been a year ago
I can't remember why I let you go
I wanna see sunshine when there's rain
I wanna feel pleasure when there's pain
I wanna be with you so I hope and hope and hope and hope
and hope, yeah
I wanna feel warm as life is cold
I wanna feel young when I grow old
I wanna be with you so I hope and hope and hope and hope
and hope...yeah

Indecision is a life and will
And it's deep in me and keeping me in hell Wishing, wanting, longing, craving for
The love that was the love that is no more

But I can't remember, must have been a year ago
I can't remember why I let you go
I wanna see sunshine when there's rain
I wanna feel pleasure when there's pain
I wanna be with you so I hope and hope and hope and hope
and hope, yeah

I wanna feel warm as life is cold
I wanna feel young when I grow old
I wanna be with you so I hope and hope and hope and hope
and hope...yeah

I wanna see sunshine when there's rain
I wanna feel pleasure when there's pain
I wanna be with you so I hope and hope and hope and hope
and hope, yeah

I wanna feel warm as life is cold
I wanna feel young when I grow old

I wanna be with you so I hope and hope and hope and hope
and hope...yeah

I can't remember X3
