Gates to Hell

Obituary

I know that in the depths beneath
The guilty are the saved
I know living through pain
You, will obey, you lieLiving out the pain you feel
When you're exposed to all your crimes
Low down here beneath
Living is dyingWoken, feed by thoughts
Of the dead
[Unverified]
And even if you try to escape
You can't even tryEnter the gates to hell
Is were you with us dwellFear, fear of fate
Then your fate is getting
Is getting into grind
Even as we've begun
You're decomposing as you're dyingMaimful, painful
Life after life
Thought are incinerated
Life is a crimeEnter the gates to hell
Is were you with us dwellBurning out
