Just sit down right here in front of me I'll let you see Connect your face to the fist I'll show you what you can be No one to hear all your cries No one to hear you beg Listen to me, why can't you see? You are with me, positioned under me Let you live I depend on your will Do you see what's running through me? So I'm wrong, I'm not alone Seems like you're scared You're holding me back again Confused I'll hold all your thoughts from you You're close to me You hide from your own fears Now I'll set them free No one to hear all your cries No one to hear you beg Listen to me, why can't you see? You are with me, positioned under me Let you live I depend on your will Do you see what's running through me? So I'm wrong, I'm not alone Seems like you're scared You're holding me back again So I'm wrong, I'm not alone Seems like you're scared You're holding me back again So I'm wrong, I'm not alone Seems like you're scared You're holding me back again So I'm wrong, I'm not alone Seems like you're scared You're holding me back again
