Falling Apart

Comeback Kid

Right now I'm feeling useless
It's all the same
It's all the same to me
This curse is growing strongerThis isn't how I thought it would be now
I would pave the way
But I've got nothing to say
Thinking out loud
Who do you want me to be meWe saw, we had a vision
We heard, but didn't listen
I never could accept what they would offer
What they would giveMy battle's not against you
I'm fighting with myself
Because I'm pulled in each direction
They're all the same with different namesFalling apart
Fall down fall, falling apartWe can't pretend
That we've ever been safe
Can you hear the sound
BelieveFind your reasons beyond
Feed the urge, take it beyond
