Sustenance

Silent Civilian

Walk beside of me, take my hand
Now, you too can see, understand
False prophets align, we now wage war
Fight this is our time
Slaves no moreDestiny within our reach
We'll rise above this pain
This fire burns within our souls
The fear will not sustainCrush opposing minds, bred by hate
Read between the lines, chosen fate
(Their) world brought to it's knees
End of Days
Take back what is ours, it's time for changeDestiny within our reach
We'll rise above this pain
This fire burns within our souls
The fear will not sustain
