Devil's Highway

Kory Clarke

The Devil's Violence old
And ending a returning Love descends into the cracked windows
That no one can see truthThe beacon from God's grey arms
The metal 'ching' sound from the metal ashtrayBreak through the spiderwebs that hold us down on this devils highway Break through the spiderwebs that hold you down on the devil's highwayAmazing struggle occurs the heart Alight into endless creation of a pistol justice crime scene porno artToil grasping cry Like a phoenix dried Deserts lost on dead audienceListen hard my child Let your love run wild There's no more spiders to hurt youTheir reign came down
When the rain came down Rain came down
And wiped them outThe rain came downWe're the reign that wiped them outWe're the rain that wiped the spiders out We're the reign that wiped the spiders outWe're the rain that wiped the spiders out Now we reignBreak through the spider webs that hold you down on the Devil's Highway
