Mystery

SWV

I only wanna make you smile
And you only wanna make my know
That you wanna see the way I love
And I only wanna let it showI was young and new to the game
Now I move carefully
So won't you please be patient with me for a time?While I gaze into the mysteries of your mind
Who knows what I'll find
I hope that there will be some simple piece of mind
And troubles left behind-hindYou say you wanna love me down
I say we need to start it slow
(Start, let's go slow, baby)
I do wanna get into you
But there's so much more I need to knowAre you free, and worthy of me?
Gotta move carefully
(Carefully)
So won't you please be patient with me for a time?While I gaze into the mysteries of your mind
Who knows what I'll find
I hope that there will be some simple piece of mind
And troubles left behind-hindMystery, mystery, mystery'Cause I'm the one
(I'm the one)
Who looks out for me, babe
(Oh, yeah, babe)
Gotta move carefully, babe
So won't you please be patient with me for a time? YeahWhile I gaze into the mysteries of your mind
(While I gaze)
Who knows what I'll find
I hope that there will be some simple piece of mind
And troubles left behind-hindWhile I gaze into the mysteries of your mind
(While I gaze)
Who knows what I'll find
(Who knows what I'll find)
I hope that there will be some simple piece of mind
And troubles left behind-hind
(Troubles left behind, troubles left behind)While I gaze into the mysteries of your mind
(While I gaze)
Who knows what I'll find
(Who knows what I'll find)
I hope that there will be some simple piece of mind

While I gaze
