

Call It My Life

Sarah Hudson

There's tight turns and roadblocks and rivers to cross
Dead ends and dirt roads and miles to walk
Dark clouds and blue skies and rain in between Laughter and silence, days to just dream When everything goes wrong and nothing goes right,
Call it what you want, I call it my life I'm changin' like the seasons
Another color and another day
Just when I feel like leavin'
I hit my knees and I start to pray
Maybe I'm only dreaming
That everything's gonna be okay
I don't need no rhyme or reason,
I'm gonna make it up along the way I've been uptown and downtown, caught up and passed
Wasted like money and kicked in the ass
Washed up and burned out and sent to the sea
Sunken and stranded, alone with just me When everything goes wrong and nothing goes right,
Call it what you want, I call it my life. I'm changin' like the seasons
Another color and another day
Just when I feel like leavin'
I hit my knees and I start to pray
Maybe I'm only dreaming
That everything's gonna be okay
I don't need no rhyme or reason,
I'm gonna make it up along the way Freaked out and fucked up and thrown out like trash
Kissed off and worn out, but I keep coming back
I'm wicked; I'm wild like nothin' you've seen
I'm thrillin' I'm chillin, you know what I mean? When everything goes wrong and nothing goes right,
Call it what you want, I call it my life. I'm changin' like the seasons
Another color and another day
Just when I feel like leavin'
I hit my knees and I start to pray
Maybe I'm only dreaming
That everything's gonna be okay
I don't need no rhyme or reason,
I'm gonna make it up along the way
I call it my life, call it what you want.
