World Of Stone

Blackmore's Night

Bring to me all of my arrows
Bring to me my crossbow too
I fear we might need them both
Before the night is throughOnce a world of glittering hope
This world is not the world we knew
The only light left to shine
Is between me and youOn our own
In a world of stone
We are not aloneI had once believed in angels
They were everywhere I looked
A gentle hand guiding me
To give more than I tookBut I have died a thousand times
Watching all these angels fall
Their lonely eyes haunt me still
We will avenge them allOn our own
In a world of stone
We are not aloneSo bring me mead and bring me ale
To help us face this fight again
Good fortune will shine down on us
Together we will winAnd they will never break our spirit
We will never turn and run
And we will rise stronger still
When we stand as oneOn our own
In a world of stone
We are not aloneOn our own
In a world of stone
We are not aloneSo bring to me all of my arrows
Bring to me my crossbow too
I fear we might need them both
Before the night is through
