

Shameless Halo

Descendents

Shameless halo

I think you forgot love along the way

Shameless halo

Where does your heart go when you pray? I know what your prophet meant

But every time you vent

Sweet honey turns to poison Shameless Halo

You believe in heaven, why are you so afraid?

Shameless halo

There's a victim card that you play

When you don't get your way

You judge other peoples choices

You'd silence different voices Shameless Halo

Where does your heart go when you pray?

You call it the book of love

You're swinging it like a club

Sweet honey turns to poison I watch what you say and do

I can't stand the tone of your tune

Sweet honey turns to poison
