Anymore

Sarah Cracknell

Does anyone remember how it used to be?
Dont turn around cause you wont see me cry
I hear the sounds of motorways and aeroplanes
I'm feeling Ive got no more love to giveI don't want tomorrow
I don't want the car
I don't need your money
AnymoreI don't need the moonlight
I don't want the stars
I don't need no sunshine
AnymoreI don't want the hotels
I don't want the bars
I don't need you calling round here no moreDoes anyone believe in what you say to them?
Dont turn around, never see me cry
I cant believe how you've spent your life since then
Wasting time, telling lies and moreI don't want tomorrow
I don't want the car
I don't need your money
AnymoreI don't need the moonlight
I don't want the stars
I don't need no sunshine
AnymoreI don't want the hotels
I don't want the bars
I don't need you calling round here no moreOoh, no more
No more
No moreI don't want tomorrow
I don't want the car
I don't need your money
AnymoreI don't need the moonlight
I don't want the stars
I don't need no sunshine
AnymoreI don't want tomorrow
I don't want the car
I don't need your money
AnymoreI don't need the hotels
I don't want the bars
I don't need you calling
AnymoreI don't need nobody
Anymore
I don't need nobody

Anymore
I don't need nobody
