

Liberty Before Death

Brett Fuentes

With a blue ocean it comes in a wave to me
I see her smiling face waiting
With a gun at my side and the gold in a satchel
We are free Anyone to stand in our way must leave
Can't stop this party in my head, a sea of wine and dancing women
So beautiful in their different shades gracefully
It's like the angels have come down just to party with me
And I see your smiling face waiting Here I am through the sand heading for the sunset
We have enough gold to get out with
