Gravity

Urbandub

A thievery plot to steal your wary heart.
I've confessed to the dark, I take her blessings.
The blind leads the weak,
Shut your mouth you don't need to speak
We'll commune under twisted sheets.

I'll sing you praises before the kill.

Tell me how your body works
Your my needed releases
Pull you in to me with all gravity
Your body's worth
More than the expanse of the seas
I'm all in, cuz tonight there's only you and me

I'm chaotic, all I need is more
No use to scream, there's no one here to hear
It's erotic when we leave it all to chance
You can run if you want
You can run if you want.

I'll wait 'til the night is here

So we dance and I'm holding on
Yes, we dance and I'm holding on
I'm lost when you're not around
Tell me if you need it then I'll give it
Give you all of the world
Give you all of the world
The sin is worth the risk you're taking

Relax, concede, this will be over soon
Don't move, don't scream, breathe in
