

Trust In Me

Joe Cocker

I see you turning the world in your hands
Just let it go
I've loved you better than anyone else
Doesn't it show
We've been standing at the window day and night
Looking at the rain
When a simple conversation might help the situation
Please let me explain Trust in me, when you are alone
Trust in me, when you can't go on
If loving me is what you need
Trust in me Don't make it easy I don't mind
There's nothing left to lose
You just try to see what you see
And I'll be there for you
You've been standing at the window day and night
Tell me what you see
Sun in the daytime and moon at night, well
That's how easy it should be Trust in me, when you are alone
Trust in me, when you can't go on
If loving me is what you need
Trust in me Trust in me when you can't go on
Trust in me, when your strength is gone
If loving me has the power to heal
Trust in me If you need someone to hold call me
I will be there
And if ever you're in trouble
You need someone
Come to me baby
Trust in me Move a little closer, a little closer to the bone
Move on yeah move on
Trust in me, when you are alone
Trust in me, when you can't go on
If loving me is what you need
Trust in me Trust in me
I trust in you
I trust in you too
