

Sing To Me

Darren Hayes

You step behind a curtain
In a moment you're gone
And nothing's ever certain
And it's hard to carry on This is not what we planned
And I know it's hard to understand
But if this is what you want then
If this is what you need, pry my fingers from your hand Maybe it's just meant to be
Maybe you'll find a way to haunt me
Come back and sing a melody to me Maybe we're just lost at sea
Maybe I'm holding on to driftwood
And I'll be alright if you could sing to me, oh
Sing to me, oh You step beneath the landslide
Nothing feels right when you're wrong
And try to find an upside
Try to sing without a song This is not what we planned
And I know it's hard to understand
But if this is what you want then Maybe it's just meant to be
Maybe you'll find a way to haunt me
Come back and sing a melody to me Maybe I'm just lost at sea
Maybe I'm holding on to driftwood
And I'll be alright if you could sing to me, oh
Sing to me, oh Oh, I keep seeing flashes of your hands
When I close my eyes and I don't know why
And I don't know why Well, help me make sense of what I don't understand
'Cause I gotta know why
Oh, I gotta know why
Tell me why do you sing to me? Oh, maybe it's just meant to be
That you would sing to me
Maybe I'm just lost at sea
And you could sing for me, oh, oh, oh, oh Maybe it's just meant to be, oh
Maybe we're just lost at sea
And you can sing for me, oh
Sing to me, oh
