

My

Sophie Zelmani

My mind is just where you are
You are, you are
And I'm tired to go that farMy heart beats so fast
So fast, so fast
Slow it down, so it will lastMy dreams always
Always always confuse
They are to no useI'm not going
Going going nowhere
Not until you're hereMy life is giving
Giving giving back to me
All reasons to beMy love is so hard
So hard, so hard to feel
And it won't ever leave
