

Coming Home To Me

Patty Griffin

Anytime you say it with heart
Anytime you're falling apart
When you're washing the sheets
Any stranger you meet
When there's somebody waving goodbye
You're coming home to me
Just remember you're coming home to me
It's a world full of bar rooms and alleys
Of blue nights and red river valleys
When you feel like a shirt and a tie
Or like dirt or a lion and no one can see
You're coming home to me

Just remember you're coming home to me
When you get to that place that's just under the stars
Hanging over the tree at quarter to three
When you get there you'll know that's as far as you go
When you get there you'll see you were already free
When you get there you'll
When you're lost and you're found
And you're found then you're lost
When you're dancing with no one around
You're coming home to me
Just remember you're coming home to me
