Memories

Taylor Dayne

I'm looking out as the world goes by
All the sadness lover we tried
It used to be you held me near
I felt your touch now I'm holding back my tearsWell I, I look back
And I close my eyes
To the blame and the heartache
That we left behind
Won't you take me, I'm falling
I can't stop from loving youAnd you were my world
And all that was real
Now the memories
Are all I have to live for
'Cause you, you made me feel
The joy and the pain
All the memories
I don't want to see fade awayEvery day life is just the same
Looking in the mirror trying to put on a face
Of someone who's happy someone who's strong
But deep down inside me I know I was wrong'Cause you, you gave me more
Oh than you'll ever know
When I was such a fool, yeah
To let you go
Won't you come back, I'm sorry
I'm standing here calling youAnd you were my world
And all that was real
Now the memories
Are all I have to live for
'Cause you, you made me feel
The joy and the pain
All the memories
I don't want to see fade awayIf I could see you
I'd hold on forever
'Cause time's made me realize
We need to be togetherSo won't you come back
I'm sorry
I'm standing here calling
Take me I'm falling
I can't stop from loving youYou, you were my world
And all that was real

Now the memories
Are all I have to live for
'Cause you, you made me feel
The joy and the pain
All the memories
I don't want to see fadeYou, you were my world
Are all I have to live for
The joy and the pain
Now the memories
I don't want to see fade awayOh want you baby
Come back to me
I'm back in you baby
Oh yeah
