

Woman's Got Soul

B.B. King

She may not be the best lookin' woman
I ever did see
Nor have the charms of the ladies
Of high society But the woman's got soul
Worth all money and gold
And all the love that I have belongs
To the woman with soul Now I'm just a regular fellow
I don't need much
I don't need a Cadillac car
Or diamonds and such But the woman that I hold
She gotta have soul
And then I'm richer than the richest gold
If the woman's got soul I don't need a woman
That's got a whole lot of class
Because class in a woman
Don't mean she's gonna last I need a kind of lady
That when I hold she fits up tight, yeah
And when she throws it on me
I give in without a fight And then I know the woman's got soul
Worth all money and gold
And all the love that I have belongs
To the woman with soul The woman's got soul, yeah
The woman's got soul
The woman's got soul The woman's got soul
Worth all money and gold
And all the love that I have belongs
To the woman with soul The woman's got soul, yeah
The woman's got soul
The woman's got soul The woman's got soul
The woman's got soul, yeah
The woman's got soul The woman's got soul, yeah
The woman's got soul
The woman's got soul
