Remember Me

British Sea Power

Do you worry about your health
And do you watch it slowly change
And when you listen to yourself
Does it feel like somebody elseAnd did you notice
When you began to disappear
Oh, was it slowly at first
Until there's nobody really thereIncrement by increment
Increment by increment
Increment by incrementOh, remember me
Oh, remember me
Will you remember me?
Oh, remember me
Oh, remember me
Will you remember me?Did half of you pass away?
Oh, what about the other half?
Oh, what about the other half?
WhateverWe're all part of
The same old bloody regime
With someone taking it out
Whilst you were putting it in, it inIncrement by increment
Increment by increment
Increment by increment
Oh, let me feel your increment insideOh, remember me
Oh, remember me
Will you remember me?
Oh, remember me
Oh, remember me
Will you remember me?Oh, remember me
Oh, remember me
Will you remember me?From the here and now to eternity
Will you remember me?
