Tombstone

Sodom

In the desert plains, they ride
Two faced killers on the battle line
No defeat, one kind deed
And bullets to your brainHere they wanna go to sleep
To wait the coming morrow
Looking for a lucky strike
Everlasting sorrowHearts of granite, eyes of steel
No faith appear to be within
Following the promised land
Unmerciless and grimTombstone, tombstone
Tombstone, tombstoneRepublicans against democrats
The good, the bad and the ugly
Martial law, covered up
Return good for evilThe cowboy conspiracy
Will find a wicked end
Meeting on the battleground
Under threat of deathInseminate with hatred
Now the guns decide
Who broke the law?
Surrender or fightTombstone, tombstone
Tombstone, tombstoneBlood on the ground, lead in the air
The war has just begun
Okay Corral, side by side
To kill the dirty bunchA brother murdered brutal
Ambushing yellow rats
Now they have to pay the price
Selected for revengeMalicious and blind
No use to hide, no place to run
Vendetta burns inside
Until his work is doneTombstone, tombstone
Tombstone, tombstone
