

Take It Back

Swollen Members

Intro:Madchild [Prevail]:

Yo Prev [Whats up]

Im thinking man

We dont always have to talk about dungeons and dragons all the time, you know? [hmmm]

We dont have to make things so complicated [no doubt]

Lets take this back and show them how we can do this too [word][Verse 1: Prevail]

Deep, Im using canyons

You cant get by the cannon [no way]

Season veterans, the hawk has landed

Toxic tandem, the docotorum of mad men

The planet of apes is now a main attraction

How does it happen? If I knew id tell ya

They'd probably try to say I worshiped devils in the cellar

It's just a slight of hand, like Penn and Teller

The mighty dollar, is taller than the scholar

Ask your neighbourhood martyr about the fire starter

People are driven to buildings when I let it out my system

Built my the hands of man and women

Thinking of quitting? Nows the time

Theres more job opportunitites at the back of the line

Applications, and registrations

Feels more like an investigation

Now hows that for a demonstration4, 3, 2, 1

Go back to the essence

What were gunna do right here... take it back to the basics

Swollen members, word

What were gunna do right here... is go back

Go back to the essence

What were gunna do right here... take it back to the basics

Swollen members[Verse 2: Madchild]

Eh yo, we all get older, rhymes get bolder

Series of events makes the heart grow colder

Started off with 2, now we got mad soldiers

Battle Axe warriors, bitch, I thought I told ya

Heinekens on stage, never rock shows sober

Spit venom over cobra, hatched in october

Libra scorpion is taking over

Still the silver surver, I aint trippin on nova

Introduce Madchild, ladies and gentleman
 Let's give a big round of applause for adrenaline
 You ain't right, I'm a fucking phantom at night
 That's where a mask by day, with a temper tantrum
 Don't light my fuse, 'cause if this dynamite blows up in your face
 There won't be no one left to clean up the place
 Swollen Members adds up to one thing, and you can quote this Temporary relief for the hopeless What we gunna do right here... is go back
 Go back to the essence
 What we gunna do right here... take it back to the basics
 Verse 3: Prevail, Madchild [Prevail]
 Prisons that are made by the minds of lethals
 Truly blind, it confinds all people
 Make you wanna call out for water and bread
 My name is Prev One I put the thought in your head
 [Madchild]
 Mannic depressant, I panic from too much stressin
 Of course I'm second guessin 'cause life is just a question
 Keep your suggestions, we ain't hearin' you guys
 My name is Madchild I put the fear in your eyes
 [Prevail]
 Grey skys, disguise my chariot
 Ill ??????? to memorize the arrogant
 Clear the area, and change the false
 Pathetic speakers that lead the lost
 [Madchild]
 We feed the need to work and conquer at all costs
 Underground so there ain't nothing to fall off
 Never spoke soft, so what if we get broke
 We ain't the type of people that's meant to make a joke of What we gunna do right here... take it back to the basics
 What we gunna do right here... is go back
 Go back to the essence x2 + scratching
