Veniality

Epica

Searching for what she can't find
For her own peace of mindShe can't forgive, nor forget the past These ineffable feelings and hurt that last evermoreBewail the truth, the face of fate, and conquer all the pastDon't enthrall yourself, let the penance begin You've got to open your heart to see the confinementBewail the truth, the face of fate, and conquer all the past (2x)It seems so futile, forgiveness , your freedom the present state of venialityBewail the truth, the face of fate, and conquer all the past (3x) Search for the light , and then you'll find your own peace of mind
