

Rain

Janet Jackson

Making love in the rain I can't believe the joy it brings me
And when I'm all alone, I hear the rain on my window

It's just a little thing, but it means so much to me
Our bodies together, while the rain plays a melody

Every raindrop makes me think of you
Wishing you were close to me
There is nothing that I'd rather do than

Making love in the rain, I can't believe the joy it brings me
And when I'm all alone, I hear the rain on my window

When it's stormy outside, it's calm in my heart, with you in my arms
And when you're away from me, I wish it would rain 'cause it's always the same

Every raindrop makes me think of you
Wishing you were close to me
There is nothing that I rather do than

Making love in the rain, I can't believe the joy it brings me
I can't believe
And when I'm all alone, I hear the rain on my window
On my window

Making love in the rain, I can't believe the joy it brings me
Ooh making love
And when I'm all alone, I hear the rain on my window
On my window, I hear the rain go slow

Every raindrop makes me think of you
Wishing you were close to me
There is nothing that I'd rather do than

Making love in the rain, I can't believe the joy it brings me
Ooh, making love
And when I'm all alone
I hear the rain on my window
On my window, ooh, I hear it rain

Making love in the rain, I can't believe the joy it brings me

Ooh, ooh ooh yeah

All alone, I hear the rain, I hear the rain

Oh, oh, oh

Here comes the rain
