

Dive Over In

Skillet

I thought distinctly different then now
Wonder dramatically all about everything alwaysAll my pushing becomes nothing
I shake the fearI used to compensate for what I couldn't achieve
I conquered dreams forgetting what they wereAll my pushing becomes nothing
All my falling is into YouJump over on, everybody now
Dive over in c'mon yeah yeah
'Cause it's just not enough
To stand at the edge, you gotta dive over inNow I am voiceless senseless at Your mercy
You draw me wildly all my remainderAll my pushing becomes nothing
All my falling is into YouJump over on, everybody now
Dive over in c'mon yeah yeah
'Cause it's just not enough
To stand at the edge, you gotta dive over inAll my pushing becomes nothing
All my falling is into YouJump over on, everybody now
Dive over in c'mon yeah yeah
'Cause it's just not enough
To stand at the edge, you gotta dive over inJump over on, everybody now
Dive over in c'mon yeah yeah
It's just not enough
To stand at the edge, you gotta dive over inOh yeah, oh yeah, oh yeah, oh yeah, oh
