Case Closed

The Duskfall

Case closed, end of story I'll silence you even before you start.
I'll draw the line and make it thick, make it so thick that all can see.I'll modify a brand new line for you to cross, you won't survive.
Can't kill the speed, a vicious being forget utility, this is all about me.I've bled for what I've said but I had to let it out can't keep my mouth shut.You fools, I give you five across the eyes this time, a statement by the hand, five across the eyes.Won't cope with the world, reduced knowledge getting crowded, absorbed by it all.
I still prefer life before decay just condemn me, I don't care.I've bled for what I've said but I had to let it out I'm about to explode.You fools, I'll give you five across the eyes this time, this time I'll never repent. five across the eyes.
