

Arkansas Heat

Gossip

Two hours south of Memphis, y'all
From a little town in Arkansas where the people haven't changed at all since Nineteen-sixty-five I play games with the powers that be I got the whole town sweatin' me Got the heat and the humidity and it's a wonder we're alive Well you sell off everything you own just to make it all on your own
I ain't a child--I ain't full grown, but I'll prove to you! And tell the preacher, just in case he ask'
That we ain't never, ever comin' back
Well, it's all done and in the past,
and that's good enough fo' me
Two hours south of Memphis, y'all
From a little town in Arkansas
where the people haven't changed at all since Nineteen-sixty-five
Still judgin' us in this town,
I wanna keep our mini-house
They can run us out of our hometown, but They're never gonna keep us down! Well you sell off everything you own
just to make it all on your own
I ain't a child--I ain't full grown, but I'll prove to you!
And tell the preacher, just in case he ask'
That we ain't never, ever comin' back
Well, it's all done and in the past,
and that's good enough fo' me
Two hours south of Memphis, y'all
From a little town in Arkansas
where the people haven't changed at all since Nineteen-sixty-five
I play games with the powers that be Ya got the whole town sweatin' me Got the heat, humidity and it's a wonder we're alive.

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <https://damnyrics.com/>