Surefire

Econoline Crush

she goes ballistic on me says i don't meet her needs and she's had enough
I guess
me, i wish i could be satisfied easily
but i'm not
yeah
never enough, now
come on take it all away never enough, take it all away she feels the pain that can heal has her hands on the wheel takes it in and moves along me, i elect not to see
swim the deep tragedy
drowning in my own self interest
