

A Thousand Days

Urma Sellinger

Through my eyes
I have seen the world start spinning like a ball
Stars light up and then fall for you
So then what's a man like me supposed to do? If I gave you the moon would you notice
That I'm right beside you? Well, now a thousand days and thousand nights are not enough
'Cause I can't hold back the way I feel about my love
Won't let it go, won't let it go And if the angels came, I'd fight them back to win your soul
And when everything was said and done, they'd go back home
They oughta know, they oughta know
That you're mine, all mine In my world
You're the sun that shines and lights up the evening skies
Clearing up the horizon, hold on
Come with me and I will never let you down Oh, and in this love we'll drown, this I promise you
'Cause they can't hold us down Well, now a thousand days and thousand nights are not enough
'Cause I can't hold back the way I feel about my love
Won't let it go, won't let it go And if the angels came, I'd fight them back to win your soul.
And when everything was said and done they'd go back home
They oughta know, they oughta know
That you're mine, all mine I would do anything, just believe it
Your love means everything and I need it
Your heart won't lie, reach out for me Well, now a thousand days and thousand nights are not enough
'Cause I can't hold back the way I feel about my love
Won't let it go, won't let it go
'Cause you're mine, all mine And if the angels came, I'd fight them back to win your soul
And when everything was said and done they'd go back home
They oughta know, they oughta know
That you're mine, all mine
